Kenney & Dills.
To My Friends and Patrons.
I will be compelled to make close collections this year and depend on you to come promptly and pay your account.

Going to Move.
As I am going to Paris to make my home, I take this opportunity to notify all who have repaid in my shop that they must call on me and get it, or the goods will be sold for cash.

Notice to Creditors.
To the creditors of Carlisle and Nicholas County:
Having this day disposed of our interest in the lumber business to F. M. Peale, we take this opportunity to thank the public for their kind and liberal patronage. We also extend our good will to the new firm, and trust they may receive the same liberal and generous support. Mr. James Peale, who remains with the new firm, has charge of our books and accounts, and we respectfully ask prompt settlement of the same.
